FOOTLIGHT CLUB JUNIORS

PREMIERE PERFORMANCE — MAY 15TH AND 16TH, 1970

Twelve of our junior thespians have been working very hard to bring this ambitious project to fruition. They will present a one-act play and scenes from several others, but all their work will be for naught without an enthusiastic audience to cheer them on. If you would like to come and help make their first production self-sustaining ($1.00 will do it), please contact: Mrs. Robert Coakley, 218 Jamaicaway, Apartment 15, Jamaica Plain. We think this will be a Fabulous First!

THE FOOTLIGHT CLUB (Eliot Hall) is available for rental for social or business functions, either the lower hall, the upper hall, or both. For information, please call — 469-9182 or 522-9683.

WHO'S WHO IN THE CAST

ANGELO L. CESARIO (Paul Sevigne) is a newcomer to our stage. A graduate of the University of Utah, he teaches science at the Mary E. Curley School in Jamaica Plain. Angelo not only acted while in college, but worked backstage as well.

CHARLES W. WOLF (Morestan) has a list of Footlight Club stage credits from Here to Way Out There. He plays professors, lawyers, vicars and even British Generals equally well, and has developed the art of character acting to a high degree.

MICHAEL T. STANTON (Lablache) is a radio announcer by profession, and while new to our stage, has a most impressive theatrical background. He has acted approximately forty roles in the past ten years,— everything from Sheridan Whiteside in "The Man Who Came To Dinner" to Friar Lawrence in "Romeo and Juliet" and Herod in "The Christus." He will be playing The First Man in "A Thurber Carnival" at the Emanuel Episcopal Church in Roslindale May 21-24.

CAROL LEARY (Antoinette Sevigne) is one of our newer Junior Members, and was Stage Manager for "Twilight Walk." On a leave of absence from Emerson College, she is playing her second successive role with the Footlight Club. She was Helga in "Halfway Up The Tree." Carol hopes to do a lot of travelling soon, and wants to study writing, acting, art, and photography, which indicates she plans an ambitious future.

KAREN PENZELL (Josefa Lantenay) is also new to us. She has come from California, to major in dramatic arts at Emerson College. She keeps very busy acting with the Children's Theatre at Emerson, and has appeared with the Charles Playhouse Junior Company. She wants to be a professional actress and dancer, and her ambition is to study drama in England and then to become a member of the Minneapolis Repertory Theatre.

MRS. JAMES F. VAUGHN, JR. (Dominique Beaurevers), our Footlight Club Vice-President, is once more "on the boards." Her talents are many. She produced the memorable "Finian's Rainbow" and directed "Never Too Late." In addition club members have seen her in outstanding roles in "Solid Gold Cadillac", "See How They Run", "Send Me No Flowers", "The Women", and the unforgettable Queen Elizabeth in "Portrait of a Prince," in which she went on to win praise in NETC competition.

CARLETON POWER (Benjamin Beaurevers) past President of both the Milton Players and the Community Players of Quincy, is another of our actors with an extensive list of roles to his credit. We have lost count of how many parts he has played in other companies, but who can forget his Shannon in "Night of The Iguana" and Stanley Harrington in "Five Finger Exercise"?

FLORENCE E. FREEMAN, Director of "A Shot In the Dark", is Town Counsel for the Town of Weston, President of the Weston Drama Workshop, and a Director of the New England Theatre Conference. She has not only enjoyed notable success directing plays for the Footlight Club ("See How They Run", and "The Absence of a Cello" among others), but presented and directed her own remarkable and unusual "Portrait Of A Prince" for our ninetieth anniversary, which went on to win awards at the NETC Conference.

S. J. MESSINA (Sam to us), our producer, is currently Consultant in Community Relations for the Boston Public Schools. Sam has enjoyed success on the New York stage and in television. He directed "The Night of the Iguana" and "Twilight Walk", and has been seen in "The Caine Mutiny", "Twelve Angry Men" and "Portrait of a Prince."
